

THE GREAT CUMBRIAN LITTER PICK 2020

Friday 20th and Saturday 21st March

Last year, over 1,000 people joined in with nearly 50 litter picks right across Cumbria collecting nearly 300 bags of rubbish.

It's a truly sad fact of life that carelessly chucked-away rubbish is still blighting our beautiful Cumbrian landscapes. And recent storms Ciara and Dennis will have, unwittingly, spread our mess far and wide.

Ugggh. Let's do something about it.

We'd love all parishes across Cumbria to get involved. Let's come together again for a cleaner Cumbria!

THE GREAT CUMBRIAN LITTER PICK on Friday 20th and Saturday 21st March is a terrific opportunity for people of all ages from all communities across Cumbria to rise to the challenge, come together and muck in.

We're delighted to have Leo Houlding – Internationally renowned Climber and Adventurer (and Cumbrian resident) - as our Ambassador for The Great Cumbrian Litter Pick 2020.

You can watch his call to support and find out more about how to get involved in the event at www.thegreatcumbrianlitterpick.org.uk

- We'll be giving each primary school that signs a copy of Michael Foreman's book "One World: Our chance to save the planet."
- And each secondary school or college a copy of Dougie Poynter's book "Plastic Sucks! You Can Make A Difference"
- There will be also draw with a prize of £500 each for one community or school who takes part, to be spent on environmental improvement or enhancement in your local area or school.
- Please register today. For more information or if you've got any questions contact Ruth Kirk, Landscape Engagement Officer ruth-kirk@fld.org.uk 01539 720788

